DOWNTOWN SPRINGFIELD ARCHITECTURAL TOUR TO FOCUS ON 5th STREET SOUTH OF OLD STATE CAPITOL PLAZA

SPRINGFIELD – On Wednesday, June 1st, Downtown Springfield, Inc. invites you to discover some interesting and little-known facts about our city’s unique architectural treasures. Designer Anthony Rubano of the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency will lead a walking tour discussing the architectural styles, materials, and treatments that make up historic downtown Springfield. He will also talk about design successes and areas for improvement along the way.

This free tour lasts approximately 90 minutes and begins on the South Old State Capitol Plaza at 5:30 p.m. in front of the Lincoln Herndon Law Office (6th & Adams). This month’s tour will highlight the architectural treasures along 5th Street south of the Old State Capitol. Widow at Windsor Antiques, downtown’s world class antiquity store, located at 711 S. 5th Street, will host a small reception following the tour. For more information, please call the Downtown Springfield, Inc. office at 544-1723 or visit www.downtownspringfield.org.
