FINAL PIED PIPER ARCHITECTURAL TOUR SET FOR OCTOBER 7, 2009

SPRINGFIELD – On Wednesday, October 7th, Downtown Springfield, Inc. invites you to discover the interesting and little-known facts about our city’s unique architectural treasures. Designer Anthony Rubano of the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency will lead the September Pied Piper walking tour discussing the architectural styles, materials, and treatments that make up historic downtown Springfield. The October 7th tour will focus on the recently renovated Union Station, the renowned Horace Mann building and other significant examples of architecture.

This free tour lasts approximately 90 minutes and will begin in front of the Lincoln Herndon Law Office at 5:30 p.m. Attendees are invited to join us at the Celtic Mist Pub at 117 S. 7th Street for refreshments and light snacks after the tour. For more information, please call the Downtown Springfield, Inc. office at 544-1723 or visit www.downtownspringfield.org.
